

Vacation Bible School 2020

Still called to play and share God's Love...

July 20-24, 2020
9:00 A.M. – 12:00 Noon

Toys are universal! From our first birthday or holiday, when we played with the wrapping paper, to our adult hobbies and passions--our lives are filled with toys. As toys are a constant in our lives, so too is our journey with God, calling us into a new relationship every day, to share the journey; as the song says, "You got a friend in me!"

This summer, we, once again, take a romp down memory lane and share some of the toys of our childhood with the current generation. We created the first Toy Story VBS in 2011, and we had so much fun with the decorations, crafts, and snacks, we have chosen to re-explore a VBS. Join us this summer as explore memories, our toys, and a deepening of our relationship with those we love in a journey in God's Love...

All children from 3-years-old (out of diapers) through 6th grade are welcome to join us.
Adults and Youth, 7th grade and older, are also encouraged to participate and join us on staff.

REGISTRATION NOTE: Because of the large costs and lead preparation time for many of the crafts, we can only accept the first 100 camper registrations, so register early to ensure your child's spot!

Are any adults planning to participate? Yes or No

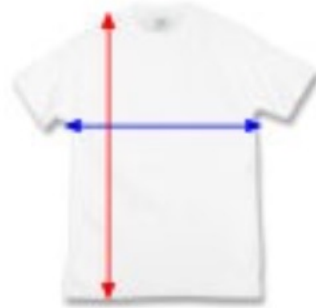

Please note: Adults are not assigned to a VBS tent group. If a camper requires the attention of a family member, the camper and family member must leave the group and the camper may return when the camper is ready to resume the program. Family members may not accompany campers in a tent group. This is the responsibility of our tent counselors.

All staff agree to the following expectations:

- Our purpose is to serve all of the campers.
- To refrain from using a cell phone or wearing sunglasses while serving.
- To wear my staff name tag and tee-shirt at all times while serving.
- To attend one of the two staff training sessions offered before VBS starts.
